PORTRAIT 100

23.08.2019 - 21.09.2019

The Sanlam Portrait Award, now in its fourth iteration, is once again a testament to the diverse artistic talent and range of skills South Africa has to offer. This was the inaugural year of the digital entry process and the panel of judges, already familiar with this process, adapted their approach accordingly.

The 2019 adjudicating panel consisted of Dr. Charlotte Mullins, Dr. Elfriede Dreyer and Pfunzo Sidogi. They selected 275 artworks from the pool of anonymous entries via video conference to be delivered to Rust-en-Vrede for on-site adjudication. During this round, the judges whittled down the entries to 100 portraits. From these, the top 40 portraits (on exhibition at Rust-en-Vrede Gallery until 23 October 2019) were selected and the remaining 60 works make up the Portrait 100 exhibition.

These 60 artworks, exhibited at the AVA (Association for Visual Arts) Gallery in Cape Town, complete the list of 'Top 100' of the best portrait entries for 2019. This exhibition will be on until 21 September 2019.

To enquire about the artworks, feel free to get in touch with the AVA Gallery.
